An Invitation

You are invited to join us on Thursday, May 8, for the 2014 Friends of Hannon Library Annual Membership Event. Renowned Shakespeare scholars Alan Armstrong and Mary Z. Mahar will discuss their latest book of interviews with master Shakespearean actors at the Oregon Shakespeare Festival. Mahar, the author of several books, is Professor Emerita at the University of Arizona where she taught Shakespeare in Performance. Armstrong, an OSF dramatist, is Professor Emeritus at SOU where he was Director of Shakespeare Studies. The speakers are sure to enthrall, providing behind-the-scenes details of the Shakespearean acting process, gleaned during interviews.

This year's annual event is free and all are welcome. We will enjoy complimentary hors d'œuvres at 5 p.m. The brief annual meeting takes place at 5:30 p.m., with the keynote speakers taking the podium. The event will be held in Hannon Library's Meese Meeting Room (LIB 305). For information call 541-552-6816.

I also invite and encourage you to become a member of the Friends of Hannon Library, and if you are a member, to continue your membership. Over forty years ago we began as an organization committed to raising money to buy resources and materials that the university could not afford with its regular budget. Our mission remains vital as the prices of books, journals, and electronic resources continue to rise. The Board of the Friends remains committed to supporting Hannon Library as they provide important new services and resources.

I hope to see you Thursday, May 8, for a no-cost evening of good company, refreshments, and a stimulating keynote by these entertaining Shakespeare scholars. I promise you a delightful evening.

—RUBY WHALLEY
